PARENTAL COMMITMENT:

Prior to attending class, a financial contract will be drawn up and signed by the parent or guardian. The first month payment must be made before the child attends class. All subsequent payments must be received on or before the 20th of each month. The supply fee will be included in the first payment. After the initial payment is made, the balance of the contract will be set up on an automatic payment schedule.

In the event the child is being withdrawn from the preschool program charges will remain in effect until the preschool director has been notified

I understand that my child's photo, writings, or work, or achievements could be used in City Christian School's promotional material.
